P & C NEWS

Do you want to be a Guinness World Record holder?

Well here is your chance. Hamilton North Public School has been approved to hold an event to break the record for LARGEST GATHERING OF PEOPLE DRESSED AS GARDEN GNOMES.

The current record stands at 478, so we are hoping the whole school community will join in. It will be held on Wednesday, 18 September 2013 after school hours.

It will be a lot of fun, however there will be some preparation prior to this. It is important that everyone is dressed specifically according to the Guinness World Record guidelines. The items needed are not difficult, you may already have them at home (eg boots). We will be providing detailed information every week in the Chalkboard during Term 3 about items to gather.

Because there is a lot of preparation by the organisers, we want to ensure that the school community is behind this event. Parents, grandparents, siblings, friends, neighbours...in fact anyone you think would like to join in is invited to come along. Please complete the RSVP below with an estimated number of people who you will be bringing (including school children), and return it to school by Friday, 21 June.

Thank you
